The Winds of Fate

*One ship drives east and another drives west,
With the self same winds that blow,
'Tis the set of the sails,
And not the gales,
That tell them the way to go.*

*Like the winds of the sea are the winds of fate,
As we voyage along through life,
'Tis the sea of the soul,
That decides the goal,
And not the call or the strife.*

-- Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Dedication

True success can be measured only in terms of dedication to a task. Mrs. Ham has commanded the unqualified respect of students and teachers through her willingness to serve others and to spend herself in educating the youth in her charge.

As an expression of our appreciation for her excellent teaching and our love for her we affectionately dedicate this ELBALA to Mrs. Kate Ham.

Our Superintendent At Work . . .

"Human conduct is like a river, whether it stops within its restraining banks--that is, moral codes--or floods disastrously depends upon two things: the strength of the banks and the force of the pressures against them."

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

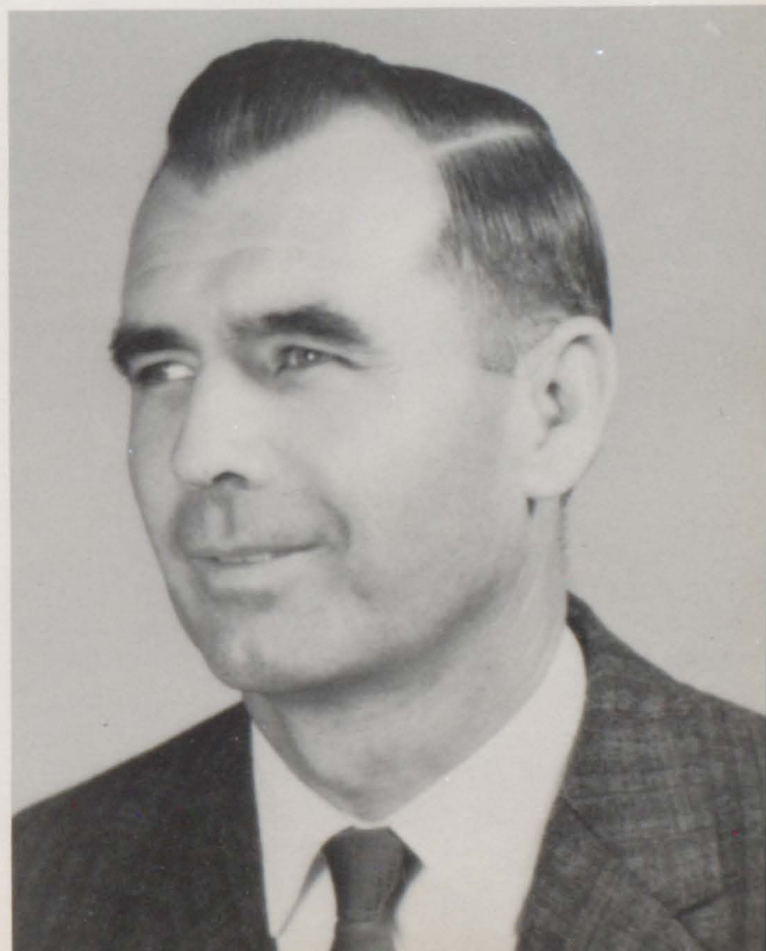

This edition of ELBALA comes to you with the hope that it will revive happy memories every time you turn its pages. May it serve to knit closer the ties that bind you to your Alma Mater, to her students and teachers, as well as to her ideals. The many hours of work and play that have gone into the preparation of this book have been rich and happy experiences for the staff.

Alma Mater

*Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
Formed in Elba High;
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie,
Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Deep graven on each heart,
Shall be found unwavering true
When we from life shall part.*
